

Stepping Up

A transition project for children moving from Early Years settings to Primary School in North Inner City Dublin

Tip Sheet for Primary Schools

The role of the primary school in supporting a child's transition

Play-based pedagogies support the development of children's agency.

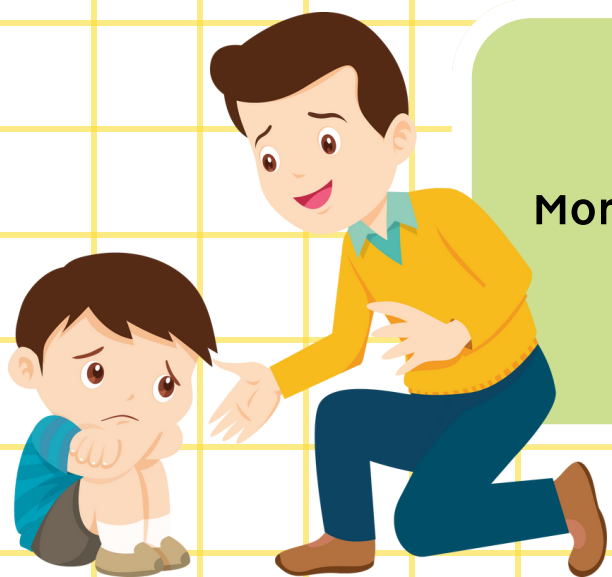

Steps to consider when planning for the transition

Additional support may be required for children who have not attended a preschool

Supporting children with additional needs

Monitor how a child is settling in

